TERRIBLE TORNADO!

Fifty Killed, Hundreds Injured and Many Missing.

Fort Smith, Ark., Almost Destroyed by Fire and Cyclone.

Greatest Excitement Prevails Over the Uprising of Seminole.

BRAYS OF THE WAR PATH.

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 12.—A terrible cyclone struck this city at 11:15 last night. Fifty people are dead and as many more are missing.

Houses were wrecked by the score and hundreds left without food and shelter.
The situation is appalling.

The dead are: Ed Ferrill, Roy Ferrill, Irene Ferrill, John Ball, Kyle, John Martin, two Lefebvre boys, Geo. Kilo, Paul, Mrs. Lawson, Frank Richardson, George Laver, George Carter, Louis S.
Rogers, John Martin, Jr., and four unknown.

The list is by no means complete. But little effort has been made to search the ruins of the residence portion of the city that was in the storm's path. Fire broke out in a number of places. It is known that some bodies were cremated.

The high school building, just finished at a cost of $100,000, was leveled, besides one of the churches.

The storm came up suddenly from the southwest and in the twinkling of an eye a large portion of the city was in ruins. All the physicians in the city are at work dressing the wounds and binding the broken limbs.

The home of Mrs. Hendrix, on Thirteenth street, was destroyed, and the family nearly killed. Both of Dr. Gates' arms are broken, and his wife is probably fatally crushed. The wife of Luther Hunter was badly injured. Mrs. Captain Hugh L. Rogers was dug out of the ruins of a rock house on south Ninth street, badly injured, but hopes are entertained for her recovery. R. H. Rineberg was on his way home when the cyclone struck the city, and was lifted off his feet and carried quite a distance. His clothes were torn off, one shoulder was dislocated and the head injured.

At 12 m. it looks as though fifty persons have been killed. The death list is growing hourly. Hundreds of persons have been injured, some fatally. The tornado, after passing through the residence district, did its worst work in that portion of the business districts in which the older buildings are located. For this reason $500,000 will scarcely cover the loss. The debris of many buildings in the lodging-house district caught fire, and those unfortunate not at once extricated alive perished miserably by being burned or smothered to death.

A heavy rain followed the terrible tornado.

In less than thirty minutes the streets were crowded, and willing hands were ready to render all aid the emergency required.

The streets were so filled with debris that it was with difficulty carriages could get around.

THE DEAD AND INJURED.

The following is a partial list of the dead and injured: Dead—George Carter, Ed. Ferrill, Irene Ferrill, Roy Ferrill, Frank Richardson, George Lowell, Murdock, an unknown man, an unknown woman, R. H. Crowholder, back injured; A. R. Stafford, back injured; Ashworth, chest crushed; Dr. Cate, both arms broken; Mrs. Cate, badly crushed; Mrs.
Cate's mother, seriously crushed; Minnie Burgess, spine injured; Mrs. Ed. Ferrill, injured about chest; Mrs. Hugh Rogers, badly bruised about the body; Mr. and Mrs. Ritter, caught under falling walls; Mrs. F. H. Brown, body crushed.

Missing—J. L. Clayland and wife; Mrs.
Will Lawson and Miss Lawson.

Bryan Favours Fusion.

Minneapolis, Jan. 12.—The fusion of the silver elements in Minnesota is officially endorsed by the state central committee. Chairman Rosings made the announcement especially at the Jackson banquet early this morning. W. J.
Ritter in his speech concluded at 2 a. m., and devoted much time to endorsing the fusion idea and illustrating its efficacy by the results in Nebraska.

Demolished by Earthquake.

The Hague, Jan. 12.—An official dispatch from Batavia announces that the capital of Ambon, one of the Moluccas islands, has been completely demolished by an earthquake. Fifty persons were killed and 300 injured.

Deaths of Congress.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The civil service debate having been concluded yesterday, interest in the house proceedings was visibly decreased to-day. Cannon, chairman of the appropriation committee, called up the urgent deficiency bill,

HANNA ELECTED!

Received 73 Votes to 70 for Mayor McKisson.

Galleries Went Wild when His Election was Announced.

Effort to Investigate Bribery Charges Before Voting Fall.

OTIS MAKES STATEMENT.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 12.—When the house convened, at 10 o'clock, Representative Otis was promptly recognized on a question of privilege. He made a long statement regarding the bribery charges.
He said it was due to the house and himself to have an investigation before proceeding in the election of United States senator, and offered a resolution accordingly.

On motion to suspend the rules for the immediate consideration of the resolution, the vote stood 52 yeas, 56 nays. The motion being declared lost, there were cheers on the republican side and in the galleries. The vote was precisely the same as on the two ballots for the short and long terms for senator.

There are 100 members and 56 Hanna men always voted solidly. Representative Cramer was absent, and is still very sick.

Forty-six democrats and the bolting six republicans voted together for investigation before electing senator. Representative Stewart, a Hanna leader, said there would come a proper time for the fullest investigation, but this was the time for electing a senator.

In the senate Burke offered a resolution demanding investigation into the charge that $1,200 had been offered by allied agents in the interest of Hanna, for the vote of Representative Otis. Before a vote upon the resolution could be taken a message was received from the house of representatives, stating that body was ready to vote upon the election of a United States senator. The president held further discussion out of order and the matter was laid over.

In the joint convention, Burke, the only dissenting republican senator, presented the name of Robert K. McKisson, republican mayor of Cleveland, in a forcible and inflammatory speech that commanded the closest attention. In one of his citismaxes he said: "James A. Garfield would have voted for McKisson, if he were alive and senator here to-day."

All democrats voted for McKisson, except General Wiley, who voted for Leach.
Separate ballots were taken for the long and short terms, but resulted the same: Hanna, 73; McKisson, 70; one absentee.

After Hanna was declared elected the galleries went wild. Senators and representatives participated in the demonstration. A committee of five was appointed to escort Hanna to the hall.

Will Exchange Posts.

Washington, Jan. 12.—An arrangement has been perfected by which Charles Page Bryan, of Illinois, nominated minister to China, and ex-senator Conger, of Michigan, minister to Brazil, will exchange posts.

Public Commission Law Void.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 12.—Judge Scott, of the district court, handed down an opinion holding the law under which the Omaha police commission was appointed unconstitutional.

Judge Newman Dead.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 12.—Judge A. W.
Newman, of the state supreme court, fell on an icy sidewalk yesterday and sustained a fracture of the skull. He died to-day.

Money Market.

New York, Jan. 12.—Money on call, nominal 2 1/2 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 1/4 per cent.

Silver and Lead.

New York, Jan. 12.—Silver, 57 1/2 c.

Decide to Strike.

New Bedford, Mass., Jan. 12.—The vote of the Weavers' union last night was 655 for striking to 5 against.

Held Court at Socorro.

Judge J. W. Crumacker returned from Socorro last night, where he held court yesterday for Judge Hamilton, who was obliged to stay in Santa Fe in attendance on the supreme court. As the court fund of Socorro county is not over-due he was anxious that the machinery of justice should be kept in motion, as long as the expense of jurors and witnesses had to be incurred.

The case of the territory vs. Dobbin, charged with poisoning some hogs belonging to Kelly, was disposed of, the jury finding Dobbin guilty on one of the counts. A motion for a new trial was made, so Judge Crumacker did not pass sentence, but left the matter to Judge Hamilton, who returned to-day.

Is Your Box Rent Paid?

There will be numerous kicks indulged in to-morrow when parties who have forgotten to pay their box rent will be obliged to call at the general delivery window or not get their mail. The limit expired January 10, but Postmaster Grumfield gave his patrons two days of grace extra. This evening the night clerk will be instructed to put all the mail in the general delivery for which the box rent remains unpaid.

Boiler Blow Up.

W. H. Stevens, assayer, who was at Magdalena on business, has returned to his office in this city. Mr. Stevens reports a disaster at the Graphic smelter, of which Capt. A. B. Fitch is the popular manager. Last Friday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, while the engineer was momentarily absent, the boiler at the water pumping station for the smelter blew up and went sailing into the air for at least

THE SUPREME COURT!

Motions for Re-hearing Overruled in Number of Cases.

Dr. G. W. Harrison Obeys the Order in His Case.

Barnett vs. Barnett Appealed to U. S.
Supreme Court.

OTHER IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

Hon. Nellie B. Field, Judge N. C. Collier, Karl A. Snyder and Dr. G. W. Harrison returned from Santa Fe last night where they have been attending the supreme court, which reconvened at Santa Fe on Monday.

The mandate of the United States supreme court in the case of Pedro Perez as administrator vs. Dr. G. W. Harrison, was presented, and the court, in accordance with the same, ordered Dr. Harrison to pay over to Mr. Perez the sum of $30,306.96, which he did. There was no new matters presented in this case.

Motions for a rehearing were granted in the case of Walker vs. Wells Fargo Express company, and Lockhart vs.
Wells, which involves the Washington mine in the Cochiti district.

The court reversed the decision of Judge Collier in the intervention of Clatsop in the Bullock-Sewell matter.

Motions for rehearing were overruled in the following cases: Boyle vs. Montana Key Mining company; Baton Water Works company vs. Town of Baton; New Mexico National bank vs. Brooks; Lincoln-Lucky and Lee Mining company vs.
Hendrick; Wells vs. Cuenod; Givens vs.
Vander; Barnett vs. Barnett; Wormser vs.
Lindauer; Horse Springs Cattle company vs. J. W. Schofield.

In the case of the United States vs.
Frank Lennett et al., motion to modify judgment was overruled.

A stipulation signed by C. P. Elder, of Denver, claiming, dismissing the appeal in the Red River land grant case, was received by the attorneys of the United States land court. The latter court rejected the grant and Elder appealed, but under a compromise arrangement with the miners and settlers along the Red river, the case is now to be stricken from the supreme court docket, and the costs against Elder. The stipulation will be forwarded immediately to Attorney Reynolds, who is in Washington. This is the final step toward clearing up all question of land title in the Red river country.

Appeals to the United States supreme court were taken in the cases of Barnett vs. Barnett, Gliderseve vs. the Rio Grande Immigration and Colonization company, Scholdest vs. the Horse Springs Cattle company, Eberle vs. Carmichael, and the cases of the Baton Water Works and of the Santa Fe Gas and Electric Light company.

A committee was appointed by the court, as provided by the rules of the supreme court, to conduct the examinations of candidates for admission to the bar, composed of Judge N. C. Collier, chairman; Gen. E. L. Bartlett, A. A.
Jones, Judge A. A. Freeman and Judge S.
B. Newcomb.

MURDER AT OLIO.

Dead Man Found With Bullet Hole in Back of His Head.

R. G. Balcomb and T. J. Curran returned last night from the Indian village of San Felipe, where they had been to confer with the governor and other leaders among the Indians on the matter of a right of way for the low line canal.

They found the Indians friendly, and no trouble is anticipated in reaching an amicable understanding with them.

The gentlemen report the finding of a murdered man a short way from the railroad at Olito, which is about four miles north of San Felipe. The facts, as heard by Messrs. Balcomb and Curran, are that the Indians found the dead body and buried it in leaves, where they left it for ten days before they informed anybody of their find, which they did day before yesterday. A bullet hole was found in the back of the head, and an Indian said he had seen a white man shoot him.

After killing him the murderer had stripped the body of every article of clothing that was on it. The body was buried yesterday afternoon. Although no word has been received by Sheriff Hubbell, it is understood that his deputies residing in that locality are at work trying to locate the murderer.

St. John's Sunday School Entertainment.

A happy throng of little folks and young people gathered last night in the banqueting room of the opera house to hold the annual festival of St. John's Sunday school.

For some time previous a number of children had been carefully rehearsed by Mrs. L. L. Melan, aided by Miss Cora Gehring, in the preparation of a tuncful operetta, "Little Red Riding Hood."

The artistic manner in which it was rendered last evening reflects the high respect on the above named talented lady and her aids.

The group of fairies and their queen was a right pretty picture—silver crowns and stars glittered in beauty—the golden insignia of her majesty was most imposing, which the handsome costumes of her pages made a rich background of color.

The various dramatist persons acquitted themselves admirably. We may especially mention Miss Lily Gehring as the "Wolf," Miss Viola Kregel as the "Queen," Miss Mabel Barrett as the "Mother," Miss May Gehring as "Little Red Riding Hood," and Master Harry Holloway as the "Humble Bee."

The most numerous new and well, and the members of the chorus sang lustily Truly, to the whole affair, the ancient proverb will apply. "Faints coronal appears." After the performance was over, cakes and lemonade were served to the young people and their guests.

The priest in charge wishes to thank most heartily the members of St. Agnechapter (boys), who kindly took charge of the work of attending to the whole affair, and to other good friends who contributed to the enjoyment of his dear children.

Remember the regular free concert at Orchestration hall Wednesday night, Jan.
12th, at 8 o'clock. The company is in receipt of new music. For those who dance, we will give you the first free time. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Big Cleaning Up
Sale of Shoes...

As you know, we all have a general housecleaning once or twice a year.

Well, we are going to have one of ours now, and such a grand cleaning up you never heard of before. It will, and must be, the greatest of the greatest and the biggest of the biggest. Now we are going to extend a general invitation to every woman, man and child to come to our store and help us out in this Grand Cleaning Up Sale of Good, Honest Footwear, and you will come when you learn what we are going to do for you. We will make it of interest to you, and, better and greater than all, dollars in your pockets. On Wednesday, January 12, we shall begin our General Cleaning Up Sale. We will place on sale 500 pairs of shoes, all kinds and all sizes. They will be on display marked in plain red figures. The price will be regardless of cost. We want them to go and they must go. We want the room for our new Spring lines, you want the shoes. This is the chance of a lifetime to get a good, honest pair of shoes for little money. Come to our store and see for yourself what we are doing. Everything will be before you in plain red figures, positively the grandest bargains in strictly first-class shoes ever offered in Albuquerque. This sale will last ten days, commencing January 12.
Attend it and make money. Respectfully, GEO. C. GAINSELY & CO., 123 South Second Street.
